

THOMAS WOLFE TIME LINE

- 1900 Thomas Wolfe born in Asheville
- 1904 Brother Grover Cleveland Wolfe dies in St. Louis, Missouri
- 1906 Mother Julia Elizabeth Wolfe buys Old Kentucky Home
Tom enters Orange Street Grammar School
- 1912 Enters North State Fitting School
- 1916 Leaves for University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- 1918 Brother Benjamin Harrison Wolfe dies
- 1920 Tom graduates from University of North Carolina
Begins at Harvard Graduate School
- 1922 Completes Masters Degree at Harvard
Father William Oliver Wolfe dies
- 1924 Tom begins teaching at New York University
- 1925 Meets Aline Bernstein returning from trip to Europe
- 1926 Begins work on first novel Look Homeward, Angel in London
- 1929 Look Homeward, Angel is published
- 1935 Of Time and the River, second novel, is published
- 1937 Returns to Asheville for summer visit
- 1938 Leaves for tour of West, becomes ill
Dies in September three weeks short of 38th birthday
Buried at Riverside Cemetery
- 1939 The Web and the Rock, third novel, is published
- 1940 You Can't Go Home Again, fourth novel, is published
- 1941 The Hill Beyond, collection of short stories, published